ADULT EDUCATION

St. Johns River State College offers adult education classes throughout Putnam County for students who wish to improve their basic educational skills and/or prepare to earn a Florida High School Diploma through the General Educational Development (GED) program. Students must be 16 years of age or older and not currently enrolled in a public school system. Programs offered include:

- Adult Basic Education (ABE)
- General Educational Development (GED)
- Corrections
- Career Pathways
- Continuing Education

The Adult Education program provides a supportive environment for students who wish to improve their educational skills in order to enter a college or vocational program. The program consists of:

- Open entry enrollment
- Instructor-led, self-paced, and computer-aided instruction
- Online instruction
- Free use of textbooks and handouts
- Dedicated, caring, and qualified instructors

Courses are offered both during the day and in the evenings year-round at SJR State's Palatka Campus and at off-campus sites in Interlachen and Crescent City. In addition, the Correctional program is offered at off-campus locations. The GED Exam is offered regularly on the College's Palatka Campus.

Information concerning courses, examination dates, registration, and fees may be obtained from the Adult Education Office by calling (386) 312-4080.
