Stay Focused

- Find a balance with the strength (rigor) of schedule (honors, dual enrollment, AP, IB, and or AICE) and performing well.

- Remember when completing college applications that if accepted into a college the admissions staff expects you to keep the same schedule and pass the courses.

- “The first 3 years of high school is what gets you into college...your senior year is what keeps you there.” Admissions Officer, Univ. of Michigan, Source: Countdown to College: 21 ‘To Do Lists for High School’
Expect to be Responsible

- You will be expected to handle all communication and paperwork.
- You will be expected to be able to log into mySJRState.
- You will be expected to know your Student ID number. (XOO......)
- You will be expected to follow-up with registration process, add/drop, withdrawals, grades, etc.
Need to manage time

- Make sure that you have enough time to study for your dual enrollment courses.
- Make sure that you have enough time to complete assignments.
- Make sure you are not overcommitted with other activities or work.
Inquire about:

- Prerequisites (foundation courses) needed for college major. Early admissions students need to know the courses that they plan on taking by the middle of June.

- Deadlines for college admissions.

- Resources available to help you if you are having trouble in a class.

- Issues you are having with classes, etc. Talk to your teacher first. Then, if you need additional help, contact the Dual Enrollment Office.
Organize class materials

- Make sure that you keep track of your syllabus for each course.

- Make sure that you read the syllabus for each course. Recommendation is to read the syllabus regularly.

- Make sure that you understand the procedures and grading policies for each course.
Remember Deadlines

- Know high school/district dual enrollment deadlines and college dual enrollment deadlines for registration.
  - Note high school deadlines and college deadlines are different.
  - Dual Enrollment Reminders will have the dates for each semester. You can find the dual enrollment reminders on mySJR State as well as receiving it in the mail.

- Know SJR State’s add/drop and withdrawal deadlines.

- Know the admission deadlines for the colleges that you plan on applying to in the Fall.
Dual Enrollment Registration

- Make sure you write clearly when completing registration forms.

- Know registration deadlines and view your schedule to determine if you have any scheduling issues.

- Seating availability issues
  - Have an alternate plan or other course options

Spring 2012-20 Reminders:

1. Go through your high school dual enrollment guidance counselor if you have any questions, changes, etc. All schedule changes must be done through your high school dual enrollment counselor.

2. READ your SJR State schedule and make sure you understand it.

3. Please be sure you can log into "my SJRstate." You can access "my SJRstate" by going to sjrstate.edu. You can get directions to log into "my SJRstate" by clicking on the blue square labeled "my SJRstate", and then on the next screen you will see "Click on first time user and password change instructions". Once you have logged into "my SJRstate", make sure you have the dual enrollment tab. If you don’t have the dual enrollment tab, contact the Dual Enrollment Office immediately.

4. By logging into "my SJRstate", you can view and print your schedule, retrieve your e-mail, gain access to your online courses, see your grades, acquire help for your class through SmartThinking, and order your transcripts.

5. What do I do if I need help with "my SJRstate" account?

Contact webhelp@sjrcc.edu or call 1-888-757-2293 (1-888-sjrccweb) for assistance.

Web Help will be available for assistance Monday - Friday 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
you will receive a response Monday–Friday within 24 hours.

6. First day of classes for spring is Monday, January 9th.

7. If you need to drop a class, make sure that you do it before Friday, January 13th. If you drop a class after Friday, January 13th, you will receive a "W" which makes you ineligible for dual enrollment for all future semesters. If you are currently enrolled in other dual enrollment classes, you will be allowed to continue in these courses.

• Last day to withdraw from a class with a "W" is Wednesday, March 21st.

8. You will be notified of grades for dual credit as soon as grades are available.
