

SPORTS

COLLEGE VOLLEYBALL

Vikings continue winning ways

Courtney Mitchell delivered nine kills and two blocks and Madison Speyerer handed out 16 assists as the St. Johns River State College volleyball team continued its winning ways on Wednesday night in Babson Park, defeating the Webber University junior varsity team, 25-14, 25-16, 25-22.

The wins pushed the Vikings to 11-2 in continuing the best record in their program's history to start the season.

Julianna Hicks had five kills and two blocks and Dany Jaramillo scrapped for 15 digs.

The Vikings will begin play in the Mid-Florida Conference on Tuesday at home against Santa Fe and on Thursday night against Daytona State.