Vikings sweep Webber JV

Kaley Cox delivered 10 kills and Haley Bookstore handed out 29 assists and delivered two kills of her own in leading the St. Johns River State College volleyball team to its fourth win in the last five matches, beating Webber International's junior varsity team, 25-13, 25-16, 25-22, Tuesday night at Tuten Gymnasium.

Kaley Cox delivered 10 kills, Shannon Farley had nine kills and Interlachen High standout Kaedi Gillman put down six kills for the Vikings.

The Vikings will host a round-robin event against Gulf Coast State College and Pasco-Hernando on Friday. The Vikings take on Pasco-Hernando at 1 p.m. and after the two visiting schools play at 3 p.m., the Vikings finish up with Gulf Coast at 6 p.m.
