

SPORTS

Gulf South honors Hunter Jones

Former SJR State and Palatka High School pitcher Hunter Jones is the Gulf South Conference pitcher of the week for his starting role in Valdosta State's 2-0 shutout of West Alabama last Saturday.

Jones retired 20 of the 25 batters he faced over seven innings, striking out eight and allowing only two hits along with two walks and a hit batsman. Jones (2-0) owns a league-best 1.48 earned run average.

He is the son of SJR State coach Ross Jones.