Vikings vanquish conference rival

Hannah Foecker delivered 16 kills, Lindsey Grossman added 14 kills and Jordyn Pruski handed out 36 assists to lead the St. Johns River State College volleyball team to a 25-23, 25-19, 25-12 Sun-Lakes Conference victory over Florida Gateway College on Saturday.

The Vikings, 11-5 overall and 1-1 in their new JUCO Division II home, saw Pruski deliver three service aces and Foecker and Grossman each record two aces. Grossman also added 15 digs, while Pruski came up with 12 against Florida Gateway, which returned to athletics after an 11-year absence when the school was known as Lake City Community College.

The Vikings play their first home match of the season Wednesday night at Tuten Gymnasium when they face top-notch Pasco-Hernando, (10-3, 2-0).
