ADDENDUM No. 1

All items in the Addendum are incorporated into the Contract Documents.

Item #1.

Question #1 After reviewing the documents, this looks to be more along the General Contracting scope of work. Can you please confirm this is the case?

Answer #1: Yes, the specifications document is prepared for Contractors, but the invitation is open to General, Building, Civil, Roofing and Mechanical Contractors. Form Appendix R was revised to show all five disciplines. When completing forms Appendix S and Appendix R Contractors should mark all of the disciplines the firm is interested in applying for. Contractors should include the licenses for the various disciplines in Section 5 Contractor's Licenses. Contractors can also include the various disciplines in Section 13 Evidence of Experience and Section 14 References & Reference Letters.

See the revised form Appendix R included in this Addendum as Attachment A.
